ATR VERDICT: MORTLACH bolted up at Huntingdon on his chase debut last week and could take a lot of beating here. The 7lb penalty he carries and the four furlongs extra shouldn't be too much of an inconvenience. The chief threat appears to be Could Be Trouble, who stayed on gamely to win at Warwick earlier this month. Decoration Of War is respected making his reappearance and could be staying on strongly at the business end.

ATR VERDICT: METHUSALAR was staying on well when third at Market Rasen earlier this month and is tipped to get off the mark. The Alan King-trained gelding looks to be progressing with each outing and there could be races to be won with him off his current mark. Bright Sunbird was second at Sedgefield recently and has cheekpieces applied for the first time. Chestnut Pete performed well at Uttoxeter on his first run back in a while.

ATR VERDICT: TIP TOP TONTO would have finished much closer at Plumpton last time had he not suffered interference at the second last, and may gain some compensation here. Copper Fox performed well on his first start for Donald McCain when chasing home a fancied stablemate and must enter calculations. Stony Man was last seen when fifth in a hot maiden hurdle at Doncaster in January and should find this more suitable.

Long Handicap: Orchestrated 10 - 1

ATR VERDICT: DARANOVA could not have been more impressive over C&D last time out and a 10lb rise may not be enough to prevent him from going in again. He gets the vote ahead of Ecossais, who ran very well over further at Kelso and remains just 1lb above his last winning mark. San Agustin is a big player based on the pick of his form but he has yet to prove himself over this distance.

Top Tip: DARANOVA (3)

Long Handicap: Iroseaboveitall 9 - 11

ATR VERDICT: It is difficult to look past DURRAGH, who won with consummate ease the last twice at Perth. A 9lb rise for her most recent success could well prove lenient and she is preferred to Iroseaboveitall, who is a very interesting recruit to the Fergal O'Brien stable. Simply Red is another who is entitled to come on for her first run for new connections earlier in the month.

ATR VERDICT: LELANTOS looked to be progressing well when last seen in December and a mere 3lb rise for scoring at Fakenham may not be enough to stop her claiming the hat-trick. Butler's Brief was in a rich vein of form prior to winning this contest last year but the same cannot be said this time around, while The Vollan is another who is very capable on his day.

ATR VERDICT: SISTERANDBROTHER made a winning stable debut for Milton Harris over 1m2f here 13 days ago and, entitled to improve further with a first-time hood equipped, he gets the vote to follow up. With Connor Planas' claim taken into consideration, he is effectively 3lb better off than that latest appearance. Blue Hero, a dual course scorer who has been knocking on the door recently, warrants respect, while Bobby Kennedy also has a chance on his reappearance.

ATR VERDICT: BRAZEN DIAMOND built on her encouraging debut performance when chasing home a short-priced favourite over C&D last month and any improvement could see her make it third-time lucky. Thismydream is a 78-rated performer and will likely figure prominently in first-time cheekpieces, while a big run from George Boughey's newcomer Spangled Mac would also come as no surprise. The Starspangledbanner gelding represents a stable which have been amongst the winners recently.

ATR VERDICT: Handytalk was touched off over 6f at Chepstow last time and will go close with a repeat performance, but SYMBOL OF HOPE looks a slightly more solid option. Grace Harris' gelding has been running consistently well for a number of weeks and it's worth noting that his two latest victories have been recorded at this venue. ATR VERDICT: This looks the perfect time for OWEN LITTLE to make his turf debut, with placed and win efforts at Kempton and Wolverhampton respectively earlier this year showing him to be arriving in top form. Ilhabela Fact has been running consistently well on the Polytrack at Kempton and hopefully he can translate that form to turf, while It's How We Roll and Harry The Norseman are by no means out of this either.

Top Tip: OWEN LITTLE (2)

ATR VERDICT: STAR OFFICIAL was well beaten on his first run for a new yard at Sligo but his overall profile is fairly useful and has a light weight in an ordinary Claimer. Useful in maidens last year, that recent Sligo race was won by an impressive eight lengths winner and he is suited by trip and easy ground. Mischief Star, under a 7lb claimer, has yet to race at this distance and while he ran well over a mile in a similar Claimer at Bellewstown, his best form is on a sound surface. Adapt To Dan has claims on best form but was reported to have had blood at both nostrils when disappointing at Bellewstown. Halycon Spirit hasn't shown much in Ireland while Tooso has a low rating but has been running consistently well and has soft ground form.

ATR VERDICT: MOE SEDWAY is consistent and has run two good races at this venue. He takes another step up in distance, which could suit, and while vulnerable to smart types, is proven on easy ground and is dependable. Flying Dolphin also has strong form having run well at Cork (the fourth won subsequently) and is proven at this distance, but the application of both first-times tongue-tie and cheek-pieces are a cause for concern. Explorers Way disappointed on testing ground at Limerick in October and while he previously ran well on easy ground here in September, meets race fit rivals. Kaliysta ran well behind a smart winner at Bellewtsown and can progress stepping up in trip while much more was seemingly expected of Tourgar Raude when disappointing here last month. Scarlet Angel, a half-sister to a Group 3 winner, needs to improve on last year's debut.

ATR VERDICT: SUWAYRA hasn't run since an impressive debut win last July but has Pretty Polly Stakes and Irish Oaks entries. Out of a Group-placed dam and from the family of Sinndar, she beat a subsequent Listed winner on debut and while her lack of a recent run is a concern, was declared to run on May 8 when withdrawn in season and being a mile juvenile winner, today's extra distance should suit. One For Bobby (Frankel) overcame a wide draw in 19 to win on debut over course and distance recently, with the runner-up winning well next time. She is out of a Listed winning dam and also looks smart. Show Of Stars is vulnerable to smarter fillies but is rated 99 and ran well in a recent Leopardstown Group 3. Lady Anner needs to improve while blue-blooded Jezebel Queen was well held at Navan.

ATR VERDICT: SARAQAEL shaped with promise despite racing green on debut. By Dark Angel and out of a Group-placed winning dam, he hung badly left at Navan and while going right-handed is a concern, looks better than Ceallach which beat him a head at Navan, and looks capable. Ceallach has an 84 rating and is dependable while Paris Lights disappointed in that Navan race and runs in first-time blinkers. Marhaba Ashmayme was withdrawn from two recent engagements due to soft ground so rain could again scupper plans. His form is not outstanding but he is dependable and steps up in trip. Touching Clouds is out of a Group 2 winner and despite being drawn wide in 11 on debut, could have smart ability.

ATR VERDICT: JAZZ DREAMERS is a dual winner over similar distances and comes here in good health. His best form is on a sound surface and wouldn't like soft, and a reproduction of his latest course and distance third-placing would give him every chance from top weight. Facethepuckout is ground-versatile and while almost all his form is over slightly shorter trips, wasn't beaten far on Leopardstown reappearance and might improve from the run. Helen De Pourtales is a dual all-weather winner who has only raced twice on turf, including a useful run at Leopardstown recently and has place claims. Mircales In May disappointed on a recent run following a break.

ATR VERDICT: HANBAGS N GLADRAGS beat four of today's rivals over course and distance recently and can defy a 7lbs rise. That was her first run of the year and having won nicely and being a fraction unexposed, can prove competitive from her revised mark. Barretstown's only previous win was on the all-weather but was second to the selection recently and is suited by trip, track and easy ground. The Bog Bank is a 27-race maiden but is consistent and was third to the selection while Cactus Tree was fifth in that race but is a dual winner. Miss Cunning has won four times on the all-weather but has been running well on turf recently, although is 4lb higher than when second at Cork. Everylittlestep ran well here recently and runs in a first-time hood while four-time winner Indiana Grey was well held by the selection recently but ran slightly better subsequently. Reappearing Dunum has his first run for a new yard and while capable, has a poor draw in 16.

ATR VERDICT: BELLS ON HER TOES was an unlucky in-running third over course and distance 13 days ago and should cope with a 2lb rise. A half-sister to a Group 3 winner, her maiden form was nothing special but showed improvement here recently and would surely have won but for meeting significant interference. Eighty Eight was second in that recent race from stall 15 but is drawn wide in 14 today. His handicap form is solid but might struggle to confirm places with the selection. Gallow Hill looked exposed in handicaps prior to a useful maiden run at Sligo, for which she has been penalised 14lb, and steps back up in trip. Coumshingaun also steps back up in trip having finished well at the Curragh while Messa Concertata was 2lbs 'wrong' when well held at Naas but was previously a soft ground winner at Tipperary.

ATR VERDICT: The forecast rain gives MOLLY KAYE an each-way chance. She reverts to the Flat after a notable runner-up finish in a handicap hurdle at Thurles in March. She was beaten half a length by an in-form horse who then followed up by a wide margin in Limerick. She was placed in a 1m6f handicap at Navan on her last start in this sphere in October. Derrinlaur looks a danger in new blinkers after her runner-up berth at Navan in March and a third over further in Killarney last week. Beret Rouge represents Willie Mullins and Colin Keane. She has two bumpers in her locker and is highly likely to show more after three unplaced runs in maidens. Star Of Burma flopped when favourite at this track earlier in the month. She did win here on her penultimate start, though, and could bounce back. Vischio is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: TRALEE HILLS has been pulled out of his last three intended races on ground concerns but should have no worries this time around returning to a surface he's won twice on. Simon Hodgson has clearly been picking his battles carefully for eight-year-old son of Mount Nelson and he looks to have every chance in making it three wins over C&D. Antonine Road ran a respectable race on his first start in over two years when fifth at Wolverhampton last month and he is entitled to strip fitter here, while Sundayinmay is also worthy of consideration.

ATR VERDICT: BEAU NASH hasn't been seen since winning on debut at Wolverhampton in October 2020, when he was nearly two lengths too good for Wirko. He's clearly had some issues over the past 18 months or so but is in the right hands to make a winning return to the track. Cosmic Desert has shaped well on both starts thus far and should be getting off the mark sooner rather than later. Real Dream was very green on debut at Nottingham and caught the eye when finishing well in fourth. He should have learnt plenty from that experience.

ATR VERDICT: RECKON I'M HOT was just touched off when staying on for second at Wolverhampton last month. The Gary Moore-trained gelding was given a 1lb rise for that effort but it's hoped that this extra furlong may bring out more improvement. Smarden Flyer looks a creditable alternative having finished runner-up at Kempton earlier in the month, while An Angel's Dream has her first run in handicap company and would be interesting if there was any market confidence behind her.

ATR VERDICT: MALRESCIA confirmed the promise shown on debut when an impressive all-the-way winner over 5f at Hamilton recently and, with this longer trip unlikely to pose any problems, she could follow up under a penalty. The other experienced runners will need to improve a fair bit so it could be down to the newcomers to ask most questions. Archie Watson's Showdance makes most appeal of those, although Dhi Qar, The Xo and Nibras Rainbow are also interesting.

ATR VERDICT: A chance is taken on the fitness of SKY BLUE PINK, who improved throughout her juvenile campaign and signed off last season with an impressive novice stakes victory at Haydock. She is proven on the all-weather as well, and should go close off this opening handicap mark of 85. Beauzon won impressively over C&D on his latest outing in January and he rates the biggest threat, while Coolmeen Royal, Phinow and Open Mind add further spice to the race.

The booking of Silvestre De Sousa is another positive and he may have too much for fellow C&D winner Tin Fandango, who makes his return from a 214-day break. ATR VERDICT: Two-time course winner STAND FREE performed well to finish third at Beverley last month and gets the vote here now returning to her favoured surface. She was also narrowly denied on her penultimate start which was over C&D, and she looks primed for another big run. Chantreys run a respectable race when fourth on her seasonal reappearance at Hamilton 11 days ago and is entitled to strip fitter. Quoteline Direct was a shade disappointing at Pontefract last time and a return to the all-weather may suit.

ATR VERDICT: GOODWOOD GLEN just lost out to Detective at Hamilton earlier in the month and that form has been boosted since with the winner scoring again at Carlisle. He appears to have improved for the step in trip since joining Keith Dalgleish and looks to have plenty going for him. Molinari has hardly run a bad race lately and it is hoped this drop back in trip may see him return to form. Sagauteur hasn't been seen since narrowly denied at Southwell in January but has gone well when fresh in the past.

Top Tip: GOODWOOD GLEN (2)

ATR VERDICT: Roger Varian and David Egan teamed up to win this race last year with Nagano and are fancied to repeat the feat with ELDAR ELDAROV. The beautifully-bred colt was a smooth winner of his maiden at Nottingham in October despite looking green throughout and should relish this extra distance. William Haggas has his string in red-hot form at present and his Post Impressionist quickened up nicely at Ayr last month and looks the chief threat. Honiton has been progressing with each run so far and is respected for top connections.

ATR VERDICT: DAYTONA LADY was unable to land a blow in the Marygate at York last time but had previously impressed when making a winning debut on the all-weather at Chelmsford. Sean Woods' charge remains a filly with great potential and, although Elvenia, Shoolaa and Queenie Rooney are also respected first time out, the daughter of Bungle Inthejungle could prove a tough nut to crack. Alexa's Princess will need to settle better than she did at Beverley to be competitive.

ATR VERDICT: SUBSTANTIAL has an attractive, unexposed profile and impressed when making a winning return over 7f at Kempton three weeks ago. His stable are in excellent form at present and, despite a 6lb rise in the ratings, he looks like the one they all have to beat. Scottish Summit has been knocking on the door and is likely to be in the shake-up again, while the dropped-in-class Summa Peto also holds claims.

ATR VERDICT: This can go the way of CLEAR ANGEL, who likes it here and went close on his penultimate start at the track. The son of Dark Angel looked in need of an extra furlong that day and he gets that opportunity again here, having unseated at Thirsk recently. Aoife's Joy is likely to figure for the in-form Mark Walford team, while Eligible has a long losing streak to overcome. Harry Love, Liberty Breeze and Tipperary Moon complete the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: THAKI has performed with credit since winning over C&D in January and a return to this track can see him notch up a fifth career victory with Harry Sexton taking off a useful 5lb. Just over a length separated Tributo (first) and Water Of Leith (third) when they met at Wolverhampton last week, for which the latter is now 9lb better off. Ginato and Truth In Jest are likely to be thereabouts as well.

ATR VERDICT: BALLYBAWN BELTER was good enough to win a Leopardstown bumper on debut and could make a successful transition to hurdling. That was a slowly-run affair but she travelled well to put her rivals away. Afterwards, her trainer commented that she jumps well. Ballyquin Bay was nicely backed ahead of his debut at Naas. He came home eighth in that big field, but the fact that three horses that finished in front of him have since won puts his effort in a better light. Vocito has been placed in three hurdle races to earn a mark of 110. His experience is an asset in this race. Female Approach won twice on the Flat for Noel Meade and is sure to be well schooled for her hurdling debut. Red Glory was successful on the Flat in Britain for Ed Dunlop and has switched to Henry de Bromhead. He is well worth checking for market strength.

ATR VERDICT: FRONTLINE WORKER may be the answer to a very weak race. Her close third in a fillies' bumper at Down Royal last summer is one of the notable pieces of form on offer. She was last sighted finishing eighth in a big field maiden hurdle at Navan in December. That has since proven to be a decent maiden. Sarsfield could be dangerous off the front as he drops back in trip. He attempted to make all over an extended 2m5f in Ballinrobe, but was collared three out to come home sixth. A good 5lb claimer has been booked. Portland Row might show some improvement from a mid-division finish on heavy ground at Cork in April.

ATR VERDICT: BIRDSANDTHEBEES made up a fair amount of ground in the home straight at Naas which brings her into contention. She came in fourth of 25 in that handicap hurdle, and the horses in second and sixth came out and won on their next starts to boost the form. Good Man Turk was a beaten favourite in fourth at Clonmel after finishing runner-up behind an easy winner at Naas. His form should have him in contention. Unanswered has won his last couple of races on the Flat. Previous hurdle efforts have been uninspiring, however, he may be reinvigorated. Mise Raftaire also has a shot. Early Arrival would welcome a lot of rain.

ATR VERDICT: JOHANNA YEATS is more than capable in this grade. She is one of the few arriving in fair form as evidenced by a runner-up spot in Naas and a victory at Ballinrobe. She wasn't at her best when fifth in her last outing at Kilbeggan, however, that was in a better class of race. Stilyker has switched to Willie Mullins and it wouldn't be surprising to see him show up well in this company. The Dylan Thomas gelding is coming off a break, but has shown snippets of form particularly when third in a Kilbeggan maiden hurdle. Lesssaidthebetter is a long-standing maiden, but has been placed five times over hurdles and is in the mix for another cheque. Sittingonthefence was fourth on handicap debut over further in Ballinrobe. She could have more scope than most.

Top Tip: JOHANNA YEATS (5)

Watch out for: STILYKER (2)

ATR VERDICT: PRESENTING POINT is rated 21lb lower in this discipline than over fences and looks to have solid claims. Although he was pulled up in his last race, that was the €50,000 Killarney National. Prior to that, he delivered over fences in Thurles and Tramore. Getaway Abbey has a chance. There was plenty of promise in her handicap debut at Limerick when she kept on well to come home a never nearer third over 2m6f. She didn't build upon that when fifth at the same venue in a first-time hood. The hood has been dispensed with now. Sphagnum didn't run badly at all when fourth in Thurles. He attracted support that day and has to rate a player in this contest.

Top Tip: PRESENTING POINT (4)

ATR VERDICT: RUHM UND EHRE's runner-up berth over C&D in January gives him an each-way shot. He has been putting in reasonable efforts since then and this is a very weak contest. Darragh O'Keeffe gets the leg up for the first time. Lady L'lerom has been placed the last couple of times she has raced over a similar trip to this one, including at this track in January. She has brighter prospects than most. Along Long Story has a maiden hunters' chase victory from Thurles in March in his locker, so this staying test will hold no fears for him.

Top Tip: RUHM UND EHRE (13)

Long Handicap: Diamond Rose 10 - 1, Wells Gold 9 - 10

ATR VERDICT: DO IT FOR THY SEN was a most impressive winner of this race last year and gets in off a 2lb higher mark this time around. The Kerry Lee-trained gelding is a dual C&D winner who showed his wellbeing when second at Chepstow last month and looks to tick plenty of boxes here. Salamanca School disappointed when attempting to follow up his impressive Plumpton win earlier this month but may be worth another shot. Diamond Rose has a tongue-strap applied for the first time and, if having the desired effect, he could go close.

ATR VERDICT: DEBECE bolted up on his first start in this sphere at Warwick six days ago and looks to have every chance of following up. Granted it was only a two-runner race last time but he jumped and travelled beautifully throughout apart from a slightly tired mistake at the last. Stratagem looks the obvious danger representing top connections and, although he was disappointing at Cheltenham on his latest start, he could improve now upped in trip. Glen Forsa must be considered making his first start for Max Comley.

ATR VERDICT: MRS GRIMLEY was a 45,000-pound purchase for Ben Pauling from Mrs John Harrington last month and is fancied to make a winning start for her new connections. She boasts some decent form in bumpers in Ireland and sets the clear standard. Nicky Henderson's runners always have to be respected and his unraced Roccstar Bay, who is a daughter of Telescope, receives weight all round. Sorceress Medea showed considerable improvement when second at Southwell last month after two lacklustre displays.

Money Spinner has shown on more than one occasion that he is capable of winning a contest of this nature but he remains a maiden through seven starts, while Magellan is not to be underestimated either.

ATR VERDICT: RED MAPLE did it nicely at Worcester last time and there could be plenty more to come from Jonjo O'Neill's charge off a 5lb higher mark. He gets the vote ahead of Overtougeorge, who enjoyed a return to the smaller obstacles when runner-up at Stratford recently. Jack's A Legend has kept some hot company in the past and the drop back in trip could help him on this occasion.

ATR VERDICT: HEURE DE GLOIRE was last seen winning a shade cosily at Ffos Las in March, when the first-time blinkers appeared to do the trick. The David Pipe-trained five-year-old made all on that occasion and if allowed a soft lead here, she may be hard to catch. Ayr Of Elegance is having her first run since last July and, although she's entitled to strip fitter for this outing, she has gone well fresh in the past. Alchemystique was a huge-priced winner of a maiden hurdle here in November and has run well in both starts in handicap company.

ATR VERDICT: A disappointing turnout for the finale although, with only 1lb between these on official ratings, it should be a good match race. DUKE OF ROCKINGHAM has gone close a couple of times over hurdles and is having his first run since wind surgery, so he gets the vote. Dual bumper winner Tiger Orchid was having his first outing in seven months when he finished runner-up on his latest start at Huntingdon 19 days ago and he is entitled to strip fitter for that run.

Top Tip: DUKE OF ROCKINGHAM (1)

Watch out for: TIGER ORCHID (2)
