ATR VERDICT: FORETELL lacks race experience but she is the first foal out of a dual Group 3-placed mare and it would be no surprise to see the daughter of Dark Angel go well this afternoon. Lady Bullet and The Twilight Lady both merit respect given their winning form, although the penalties they carry have to be a concern. Others to note are Family Ties and Pedro And The Bear.

Top Tip: FORETELL (5)

Watch out for: LADY BULLET (1)

ATR VERDICT: SMART CONNECTION has not been beaten far in either start since winning at Lingfield in March and Alice Haynes' five-year-old is likely to go well once again this afternoon. Distinction is a player based on his narrow defeat at Nottingham a couple of starts ago, while similar comments apply to Rum Runner. Others to note are El Jad and Seven For A Pound.

5 (3)		18-1237	WOTS THE WIFI CODE 5 C b g Fast Company - Velvet Jaguar	5 9 - 1p	P Mathers T Coyle	72

ATR VERDICT: A strong case can be made for most of these but preference is for SHAKE A LEG, who is only 2lb higher than when taking a competitive contest at Doncaster a month ago. Baileys Derbyday failed to fire at Hamilton last time but is a player based on his previous success at Chelmsford, while Wots The Wifi Code is another with claims.

ATR VERDICT: SCOTTISH SUMMIT has been knocking on the door of late and smashed it open when scoring with plenty up his sleeve at Newcastle on Tuesday. A 4lb penalty shouldn't inconvenience him and the evergreen nine-year-old can fend off the likely challenge of recent York scorer Bollin Joan. Pisanello is another who could have a say, though he will need to be more amenable upon leaving the stalls.

Top Tip: SCOTTISH SUMMIT (2)

9 (9)		778-430	ROYAL EMERTHER (IRE) 17 BF b g Mehmas - Tifariti	3 8 - 9p	S A Gray K R Burke	56

ATR VERDICT: A chance is taken with QUEEN OF COMEDY. The daughter of Kingman drops in trip for her handicap debut and she could make a mark of 66 look lenient. Woodlands Charm makes obvious appeal following on from her recent C&D second, while Better Half was successful at Chelmsford last November and she can pose a threat to all if transferring that ability to the turf.

Top Tip: QUEEN OF COMEDY (5)

Watch out for: WOODLANDS CHARM (7)

ATR VERDICT: KITEFLYER finished third in a hot renewal of the Wood Ditton at Newmarket before heading to Chepstow and opening his account. This may be no penalty kick for Sir Michael Stoute's charge, but he can land the spoils. Shining Blue is feared most for the all-conquering Team Godolphin, while Field Of Honour could play a part on his racecourse debut.

Long Handicap: Orchid Rose 8 - 8

ATR VERDICT: BIRKENHEAD was demoted to second by the stewards for his C&D run earlier this month, but it didn't stop him from gaining compensation just a few days later. Paul Midgley's charge is turned out quickly once more and he can continue his fine form by winning once more. The consistent Lost My Sock is likely to make his presence felt and Mokaman, who won at Musselburgh in April but was then beaten at Catterick and also held an entry here on Wednesday, completes the shortlist.

Top Tip: BIRKENHEAD (2)

Watch out for: MOKAMAN (3)
