ATR VERDICT: Double O may prove popular after her debut second at Doncaster and any improvement might see her involved in the finish, but preference is for MERSEA. Third last time out at Yarmouth in a better race, she ought to appreciate this company, in which she can try to put her experience to good use. White Mist may come out best of the newcomers and could be one to watch for future reference for the stable who took this in 2019.

Top Tip: MERSEA (9)

ATR VERDICT: SANKS A MILLION caught the eye on debut when bumped at the start, before coming with a run from a furlong out to be denied by half a length. He can only learn from the experience and with an added furlong, he may get off the mark at the second attempt. Indian Dream looks a huge danger with a similar profile after his second at Newmarket and is not to be underestimated, while Gethiptothetrip represents sire of the moment, Tasleet, and could also get involved on debut.

Top Tip: SANKS A MILLION (9)
Watch out for: INDIAN DREAM (4)

Long Handicap: Regal World 8 - 13, Vamos Chica 8 - 13

ATR VERDICT: Audit looks interesting for the stable who won this in 2017 after coming home fourth over a furlong shorter at Redcar following a slow start. He races off 2lb lower here and could prove the biggest danger to METHINKS. The selection was a neck second here last week and will go up 3lb for future races, suggesting he is well handicapped here if he gets the nine furlongs. Promotion is another to consider, though he may be better over further in time.

Top Tip: METHINKS (10)

ATR VERDICT: The William Haggas stable can do little wrong at present and the form of JUST WONDER's most recent third at Haydock has taken a couple of boosts since. He gets the vote ahead of Alyth, who shaped well first time out at Nottingham last November, and Kalahari Prince, who is of interest on his first start for the Kevin Ryan stable.

ATR VERDICT: FIORINA has had a couple of opportunities to break the maiden but this may represent her best opportunity yet, having been denied by the narrowest of margins at Kempton last time out. Discretion ground it out well to claim the spoils at Beverley and she must enter calculations along with Albegrey, who deservedly got off the mark at Ripon. Musselburgh winner Showmedemoney is well capable of being in the mix as well.

ATR VERDICT: Detective arrives here on the back of two victories in recent weeks and merits plenty of respect once again, although the 5lb penalty he carries today has to be a concern. With that in mind, preference is for ZOFFEE, who made an encouraging seasonal/stable debut at Salisbury at the beginning of the month. Others to note are Snookered and Pearl Warrior.

ATR VERDICT: JAMIL has not been disgraced in either start since winning at Catterick in April and the in-form seven-year-old could be hard to stop in a race of this nature. Brancaster has been off the track for a long time, but he is more than capable of going well at this level. Mr McCall edges out Iolani to be the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: Hot Team could be of interest on his first start for a new yard and if a change of surroundings rekindles his better form, he might go well in this company. Intercessor needs to bounce back from a poor run at Ripon and preference is for CATHAYENSIS. Twice a winner on the all-weather this year, she ran on well over a mile after a poor start at Redcar last week and, if she can get away smartly here, she seems to have every chance.

7 (4)			QUEEN OF CHANGE (IRE) b f Sea The Stars - Salacia	3 9 - 2	Harry Burns (5) S & E Crisford	-

ATR VERDICT: The formbook suggests this is all about CHICHEN ITZA, who ran twice last season, coming home fourth at Leicester and beaten less than a length when third at Newcastle in September. That is easily the best effort on offer here and she may prove too good for newcomer Queen Of Change, who looks the part on paper as a half-sister to Group 1 winner King Of Change. Mimikyu is another to watch from a stable full of three-year-old filly talent.

Top Tip: CHICHEN ITZA (1)

ATR VERDICT: Maxi King showed promise when second on his debut at Nottingham and won't be far away here with any improvement. MUTAANY is bred to be well above average as a full-brother to Commonwealth Cup winner Eqtidaar, who also won on his racecourse bow. He may be the class act here and could win first time out, though improvement also seems likely from Banddar, who steps up in trip for a stable in red-hot form.

ATR VERDICT: Modular Magic was touched off on his seasonal debut at Thirsk last month and has a definite chance now eased in class, similarly Sound Reason and Miss Nay Never. Wrenthorpe also merits consideration on his return to action, but CELSIUS shades the verdict. Tom Clover's charge is a three-time C&D scorer and showed that he maintains all of his ability when making a winning reappearance at Ascot four weeks ago.

Melody Cher made a pleasing reappearance when third at Wolverhampton earlier this month and that form has been boosted with the second winning since. ATR VERDICT: AUTUMN FESTIVAL could give weight and a beating to these rivals. A string of recent win and placed efforts show him to be arriving at the top of his game and cutting back from 1m is unlikely to pose any problems. Emeralds Pride won her maiden on seasonal reappearance at Thirsk last month and merits consideration now switching back to handicap company, while Above It All isn't out of it either.

ATR VERDICT: VOCARIUM promised a lot in his early days and races from his low weight and &euro;4,000 valuation. A Punchestown festival bumper winner on debut in 2017, he is winless since 2018 but ran well enough in his races last year and might have the ability to win on reappearance. Eclair De Beaufeu, runner-up in the 2020 County Hurdle, was himself smart in the past and is still just an eight year old. He is race-fit but his recent performances, albeit in good races, have been underwhelming and gives 17lb to the selection (including claims). Big Jim Dwyer hasn't run for 426 days and debuts for Emmet Mullins. He was useful in the past, has a low weight and is suited by a sound surface. One Down was capable in the past but has pulled up on his last two starts and never travelled at Ballinrobe on his latest run. Classic Concorde is fairly useful but would prefer further.

ATR VERDICT: WALK ON THE MOONE's good pedigree is all stamina and she looks sure to benefit from stepping up in trip following her easy Kilbeggan bumper win. A half-sister to high-class stayers Sizing Tennesse and Mount Ida, she showed plenty ability at Kilbeggan and contests a winneable maiden on jumps debut. North Of Nashville herself showed plenty ability in winning her point-to-point on debut and over hurdles last November. However her last two runs were disappointing but could be better suited to reverting to a sound surface. Shesadream has been well beaten in her three bumper runs but was at least third at Ballinrobe and could be suited by stepping up to this distance. Tingarran Express ran reasonably well at Cork recently and has some place claims.

ATR VERDICT: DYLAN LOMBARDY disappointed on his latest run at Clonmel when weakening late-on, but had useful form in April. He must defy top weight but has trip and ground in his favour in a race which isn't easy on the eye. No Way Pedro is winless from 11 runs and makes his reappearance, but had good-ground form in similar handicaps last year. Tullyhogue Fort was well held on his latest start but can be forgiven his latest run, which was on the flat, and ran well at Ballinrobe in April and is a previous good-ground winner. The 10-year-old Princess Mahler has been running reasonably well, while The Big Chap makes his handicap debut.

ATR VERDICT: DAZZLING DOVE ran her best race when fourth in a 2m handicap at Fairyhouse last month. That was in an appreciably higher grade and Tom Gibney's mare should go close off just a 1lb higher mark if she proves suited by this longer trip. The daughter of Winged Love will be making only her third start in handicaps, so there should be more to come from her. Inforapenny was pulled up in a point-to-point on his return to action in March, but was knocking on the door in similar contests over hurdles in the autumn. The six-year-old found only one too good at Clonmel and Fairyhouse, likes good ground, and might sharpen up for the fitting of headgear. Tick Along, partnered by an in-form claimer, was placed over 2m4f at Bellewstown last year and should be better for her recent comeback, which was her first outing in nearly nine months.

ATR VERDICT: Henry de Bromhead has sent out several maiden hurdle winners this month and ITWASFATE can be another for the dual Gold Cup-winning trainer. The five-year-old, who made the frame in all three starts last term, returns from a break after finishing fourth at Clonmel in February. His best effort came when beaten only half a length at the Christmas meeting here and he may well improve for better ground. Course bumper winner Vinnie Is Busy was placed on his hurdling debut at Downpatrick in 2020 and returned from the best part of two years off when a creditable fourth at Fairyhouse. He hasn't completed in two starts since but has to be respected and is now tried in a visor. Rocco Bay, who is related to several winners in this discipline, was placed in a couple of useful bumpers on home soil before readily getting off the mark at Bangor. She likes good ground and is a notable hurdling debutant. The very experienced General Clermont and Simpatico, placed in his first two attempts over flights, have place claims.

ATR VERDICT: SHIROCCOVILLE showed much improved form on her first start for Emmet Mullins when landing a 2m4f handicap hurdle at Killarney last August. She was lame when pulled up over fences the following month and hasn't been seen since. Although a 12lb hike for her hurdles victory looks harsh enough, and she races without the hood worn at Killarney, there could be more improvement in the lightly-raced seven-year-old. Kinnegad Lad was useful in bumpers and his best run over hurdles was when third on his handicap debut at this venue a year ago. He now makes his first appearance for Gordon Elliott and the market will reveal how fancied he is in comparison to stablemate The Abbey, who gained his first win under NH Rules at Clonmel a fortnight ago and is now 6lb higher. Rebellious Gale kept on into fourth over less than two miles at Kilbeggan and could well fare better over this much longer trip.

ATR VERDICT: MOONOVERCLOON has shown promise over hurdles and now switches to a bumper after a break of over five months. The Matt Smith-trained gelding filled fourth spot in a 2m4f maiden at Navan in December and that form could hardly have worked out much better with the first two, The Goffer and Highland Charge, both winning at Grade 3 level while the third also won a maiden recently at Tipperary. Realistic Optimism made a promising debut at Fairyhouse but disappointed subsequently on soft ground. High City Roller ran too bad to be true when favourite on debut at Clonmel while any market move for We Had It All Said, a Flemensfirth gelding out of a bumper winner, would be interesting with Derek O'Connor booked for the ride.

Top Tip: MOONOVERCLOON (8)

Watch out for: REALISTIC OPTIMISM (11)

ATR VERDICT: FORETELL lacks race experience but she is the first foal out of a dual Group 3-placed mare and it would be no surprise to see the daughter of Dark Angel go well this afternoon. Lady Bullet and The Twilight Lady both merit respect given their winning form, although the penalties they carry have to be a concern. Others to note are Family Ties and Pedro And The Bear.

ATR VERDICT: SMART CONNECTION has not been beaten far in either start since winning at Lingfield in March and Alice Haynes' five-year-old is likely to go well once again this afternoon. Distinction is a player based on his narrow defeat at Nottingham a couple of starts ago, while similar comments apply to Rum Runner. Others to note are El Jad and Seven For A Pound.

ATR VERDICT: A strong case can be made for most of these but preference is for SHAKE A LEG, who is only 2lb higher than when taking a competitive contest at Doncaster a month ago. Baileys Derbyday failed to fire at Hamilton last time but is a player based on his previous success at Chelmsford, while Wots The Wifi Code is another with claims.

ATR VERDICT: SCOTTISH SUMMIT has been knocking on the door of late and smashed it open when scoring with plenty up his sleeve at Newcastle on Tuesday. A 4lb penalty shouldn't inconvenience him and the evergreen nine-year-old can fend off the likely challenge of recent York scorer Bollin Joan. Pisanello is another who could have a say, though he will need to be more amenable upon leaving the stalls.

ATR VERDICT: A chance is taken with QUEEN OF COMEDY. The daughter of Kingman drops in trip for her handicap debut and she could make a mark of 66 look lenient. Woodlands Charm makes obvious appeal following on from her recent C&D second, while Better Half was successful at Chelmsford last November and she can pose a threat to all if transferring that ability to the turf.

Top Tip: QUEEN OF COMEDY (5)

Watch out for: WOODLANDS CHARM (7)

ATR VERDICT: KITEFLYER finished third in a hot renewal of the Wood Ditton at Newmarket before heading to Chepstow and opening his account. This may be no penalty kick for Sir Michael Stoute's charge, but he can land the spoils. Shining Blue is feared most for the all-conquering Team Godolphin, while Field Of Honour could play a part on his racecourse debut.

ATR VERDICT: BIRKENHEAD was demoted to second by the stewards for his C&D run earlier this month, but it didn't stop him from gaining compensation just a few days later. Paul Midgley's charge is turned out quickly once more and he can continue his fine form by winning once more. The consistent Lost My Sock is likely to make his presence felt and Mokaman, who won at Musselburgh in April but was then beaten at Catterick and also held an entry here on Wednesday, completes the shortlist.

Top Tip: BIRKENHEAD (2)

ATR VERDICT: WONDER STARELZAAM ran out a comfortable winner on his turf return at Windsor earlier this month and that form has been boosted with the second scoring since. A 4lb rise is more than fair and he is fancied to complete the double, although other last-start winners Glen Esk and The Whipmaster are just a couple of potential dangers. Eton Blue and Eikonix are also expected to go well.

ATR VERDICT: CRISPY CAT shades the verdict. His Listed second at the Curragh is the best form on offer, with the winner since successful in Group 3 company and now edging favouritism for the Coventry Stakes, and the son of Ardad still looks to be improving. Democracy Dilemma could go well at longer odds and you can also make a good case for Thirsk winner Maria Branwell.

ATR VERDICT: The three at the top of the betting market could dominate this race, with ENEMY (third) taken to reverse Sagaro Stakes form with Quickthorn (second) en route to a first Group success. Ian Williams' charge certainly looked a little unlucky at Ascot, when not getting the breaks and ending up a bit tight for room down against the rail, and he remains unexposed over this trip. The first-time visored Thunderous will likely give it a good go from the front.

ATR VERDICT: MOSTAHDAF has race fitness on his side coming into this contest and there is every chance he can follow up on his smooth success over C&D in the Gordon Richards. This can prove an ideal springboard towards the Prince of Wales's Stakes as he looks to fend off the challenge of the classy Addeybb, who was runner-up in last year's Eclipse over C&D. Bay Bridge was most progressive last season and he appeals as just the type to go on to better things at four.

ATR VERDICT: This can go the way of FARASI LANE, who has an excellent record here and has shaped with enough promise on both starts this season to suggest that a return to the winner's enclosure may be imminent. Rebel Territory arrives on the back of a taking success at Newmarket and is likely to be thereabouts along with Inigo Jones, who looked as though he was in need of a drop in trip on several occasions last season. Ouzo is another player based on the pick of his form.

Top Tip: FARASI LANE (4)

ATR VERDICT: SIP AND SMILE didn't get the clearest of runs on his only attempt at this distance at Ascot and he gained compensation since with an authoritative success at Doncaster. Returned to a mile here, the three-year-old can land the double at the main expense of the unexposed Destiny Queen, who could well be treated off a mark of 80 on handicap debut. Similar comments may well apply to Windsor runner-up Super Lover, while Two Tempting arrives here on the back of a determined success at Kempton.

ATR VERDICT: Commandment looked the sort to improve with time after winning her maiden at Hamilton last September and she could go close here, but preference is for MUMCAT. A winner over this trip at Wolverhampton and beaten less than a length when third at Lingfield, she makes her turf debut now for a stable in great form. Euracuillo is another to consider wearing a hood for the first time and with his jockey claiming 5lb from the saddle.

ATR VERDICT: With little worthwhile form to go on this may fall the way of a newcomer, with Charlie Appleby runners possibly dominating the finish. ONE NATION looks more suited to this trip as a son of Dubawi and he may be the stable first string, though Naval Power is not to be underestimated in what may yet be a battle between the pair. Alzahir is another to consider, though his pedigree suggests he might be better over further than this in time.

ATR VERDICT: In a contest full of horses with potential it may be sensible to side with HIGHLAND FROLIC, who caught the eye when third on his debut at Haydock despite a slow start. Running on close home, he pulled clear of the rest of the field and although stable companion Baltic Bird was one place ahead of him that day, jockey bookings suggest that may not be the case here. Naval College might hold off General Idea in the race for third, with The Queen owning both participants.

ATR VERDICT: Fast Forward got off the mark over 1m3f at Windsor earlier in the month, but a 6lb rise for that win has to be a concern. With that in mind, preference is for PURPLE REIGN, who put in a career best when finishing third off this mark at Wolverhampton last time and he may have more to offer today. Others to note are Thermometer, Rita Rana and The Writer.

ATR VERDICT: FLOWER OF THUNDER arrives here on the back of two victories in recent weeks and a 5lb penalty for the latest of those wins may not be enough to stop her from making it a hat-trick today. Pillars Of Earth is another recent winner who is likely to go well once again, while Voi edges out Good Regal to be best of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: Dandy Maestro arrives in excellent form with three wins from his last four races, but he needs a career best off this mark and may not be able to produce that on the softer ground. MR TRICK might be the value alternative off bottom-weight after winning narrowly over a furlong shorter when running on well at Haydock, with the step up to a mile expected to bring some improvement. Madame Peltier and Enough Already could prove to be the best of the rest.

Long Handicap: Chloellie 8 - 8

ATR VERDICT: Habanero Star did it well enough when winning over C&D last week, but she was only a length in front of CHLOELLIE that day and she meets that rival on 5lb worse terms here thanks to her penalty. That suggests the form could be turned around and with the Jenkins horses in good form, the seven-year-old appears the value call. Anglo Saxson is another of interest after a promising third at Brighton on his first start since arriving from Ireland and he could also go well.

Top Tip: CHLOELLIE (10)

Watch out for: HABANERO STAR (7)
