Long Handicap: Diamond Rose 10 - 1, Wells Gold 9 - 10

ATR VERDICT: DO IT FOR THY SEN was a most impressive winner of this race last year and gets in off a 2lb higher mark this time around. The Kerry Lee-trained gelding is a dual C&D winner who showed his wellbeing when second at Chepstow last month and looks to tick plenty of boxes here. Salamanca School disappointed when attempting to follow up his impressive Plumpton win earlier this month but may be worth another shot. Diamond Rose has a tongue-strap applied for the first time and, if having the desired effect, he could go close.

Top Tip: DO IT FOR THY SEN (2)

Watch out for: SALAMANCA SCHOOL (3)

ATR VERDICT: DEBECE bolted up on his first start in this sphere at Warwick six days ago and looks to have every chance of following up. Granted it was only a two-runner race last time but he jumped and travelled beautifully throughout apart from a slightly tired mistake at the last. Stratagem looks the obvious danger representing top connections and, although he was disappointing at Cheltenham on his latest start, he could improve now upped in trip. Glen Forsa must be considered making his first start for Max Comley.

Top Tip: DEBECE (3)

Watch out for: STRATAGEM (1)

ATR VERDICT: MRS GRIMLEY was a 45,000-pound purchase for Ben Pauling from Mrs John Harrington last month and is fancied to make a winning start for her new connections. She boasts some decent form in bumpers in Ireland and sets the clear standard. Nicky Henderson's runners always have to be respected and his unraced Roccstar Bay, who is a daughter of Telescope, receives weight all round. Sorceress Medea showed considerable improvement when second at Southwell last month after two lacklustre displays.

Top Tip: MRS GRIMLEY (9)
Watch out for: ROCCSTAR BAY (10)

ATR VERDICT: A taking winner at Sedgefield last time, BALKOTIC can follow up here off a 4lb higher mark with the drop in trip expected to suit this front-runner. Money Spinner has shown on more than one occasion that he is capable of winning a contest of this nature but he remains a maiden through seven starts, while Magellan is not to be underestimated either.

Top Tip: BALKOTIC (1)

Watch out for: MONEY SPINNER (3)

Long Handicap: Overtougeorge 9 - 6

ATR VERDICT: RED MAPLE did it nicely at Worcester last time and there could be plenty more to come from Jonjo O'Neill's charge off a 5lb higher mark. He gets the vote ahead of Overtougeorge, who enjoyed a return to the smaller obstacles when runner-up at Stratford recently. Jack's A Legend has kept some hot company in the past and the drop back in trip could help him on this occasion.

Top Tip: RED MAPLE (4)

Watch out for: OVERTOUGEORGE (6)

ATR VERDICT: HEURE DE GLOIRE was last seen winning a shade cosily at Ffos Las in March, when the first-time blinkers appeared to do the trick. The David Pipe-trained five-year-old made all on that occasion and if allowed a soft lead here, she may be hard to catch. Ayr Of Elegance is having her first run since last July and, although she's entitled to strip fitter for this outing, she has gone well fresh in the past. Alchemystique was a huge-priced winner of a maiden hurdle here in November and has run well in both starts in handicap company.

Top Tip: HEURE DE GLOIRE (2)

ATR VERDICT: A disappointing turnout for the finale although, with only 1lb between these on official ratings, it should be a good match race. DUKE OF ROCKINGHAM has gone close a couple of times over hurdles and is having his first run since wind surgery, so he gets the vote. Dual bumper winner Tiger Orchid was having his first outing in seven months when he finished runner-up on his latest start at Huntingdon 19 days ago and he is entitled to strip fitter for that run.

Top Tip: DUKE OF ROCKINGHAM (1)

Watch out for: TIGER ORCHID (2)
